

Think Visegrad platform and the Permanent Representation of the Slovak Republic to the European Union cordially invite you to save the date for a working breakfast:

A New Deal for Emerging Technologies Where will the money come from in the new MFF?

Tuesday December 11, 2018, 8:30 – 10:00
Permanent Representation of the Slovak Republic to the EU
Avenue de Cortenbergh 79, 1000, Brussels

Welcome words:

HE Petra Vargová, Deputy Permanent Representative of Slovakia to the EU

Opening contributions:

Carl-Christian Buhr, Deputy Head of Cabinet of Commissioner Mariya Gabriel, Digital Economy and Society

Patrice Chazerand, Policy Director at DigitalEurope

Panel discussion:

Radoslav Repa, Permanent Representation of Slovakia to the EU

Justyna Romanowska, Permanent Representation of Poland to the EU

Veronika Kadlecová, Permanent Representation of the Czech Republic to the EU

Eszter Lakos, Permanent Representation of Hungary to the EU (TBC)

The event will include presentation of a new study „Digital New Deal for V4: How do we stand with new technologies?” by Kryštof Kruliš, Association for International Affairs – AMO (Czech Republic), Máté Hajba (Free Market Foundation), Martin Reguli (F.A. Hayek Foundation).

Where should financing for new technologies come from? How should the future of digitalisation in Central Europe look like? How can we make sure Central European states can benefit from directly managed programs in the new MFF?

Registrations will start at 8:00, breakfast will be served from 8:00 to 8:30.

You can register by replying to this email or via bit.ly/MFFNewDeal before Sunday, 9 December 2018.

AMO.CZ

Friedrich Naumann
STIFTUNG FÜR DIE FREIHEIT

Co-funded by the Europe for Citizens Programme of the European Union