

EUROPEUM Institute for European Policy cordially invites you to the public launch of the publication:

Transregional versus national perspectives on Contemporary Central European History

Starting at 14:30 on December 15, 2017

International Visegrad Fund, Bratislava

(Hviezdoslavovo námestie 191/9)

The publication collects findings from My Hero Your Enemy conference organized in 2011 and conference National Identities in Central Europe in the Light of Changing European Geopolitics 1918–1948 organized in 2015.

The publication aims to ask following questions:

How was the CEE region shaped by historical events that influenced individual states?

What is the significance of mutual influence on perception of national identity – internal CEE relations versus external ones.

How did the influence of historical events of 20th century on contemporary political discourses?

How can be used the experience of coping with national identity related issues in current political development of CEE region?

Please register via europeum@europeum.org.

Co-funded by the Europe for Citizens Programme of the European Union

CEE Identity
National Identities