25 years of EUROPEUM | Continuing the DezinfoCzech project

Welcome to the first November newsletter!

We invite you to listen to the third episode of our Café Evropa podcast. The main theme of this episode is sustainability - in a closet or on a plate. You'll find out why a sustainable way of life is important or what you can do to be more sustainable in your everyday life. You can find the Café Evropa podcast on all podcast platforms or on the Café Evropa website.

We are also continuing with other projects. One of them is DezinfoCzech, which we post in its complete version on our Instagram every month on a new topic. DezinfoCzech is aimed at exposing the most common misinformation narratives related to European topics. In the third part, we looked at the topic of euro and related misinformation. Every month, until November, we will introduce a new disinformation topic and the related disinformation narratives.

We look forward to seeing you in the next newsletter.

Your EUROPEUM

EUROPEUM - 25th anniversary

On 26 October 2023, we celebrated 25 years of the Institute for European Policy EUROPEUM. We would like to give thanks to our partners and supporters for their longstanding support of our work, and we hope they will stay with us for many more years to come.

2024 and Beyond: How to Future-proof the Transatlantic Alliance

At the end of October, we published a new policy paper. In their analysis, researchers Danielle Piatkiewicz and Hugo Blewett-Mundy delve into the most recent obstacles confronting transatlantic security, particularly within the backdrop of Russia's war against Ukraine. The paper also anticipates the upcoming hurdles in 2024. You can read the full paper here.

Taking Stock of Transatlantic Relations

We, EUROPEUM Institute for European Policy, together with the Atlantic Council, and the American Embassy in Prague, have organised a discussion titled "Taking Stock of Transatlantic Relations" as part of the Transatlantic Policy Forum conference. You can watch the recorded discussion on our Facebook page.

THE WEAPONIZATION OF INFORMATION: THE FUTURE OF RISK IN DIGITAL ERA?

Markéta Gregorová, Member of the European Parliament, Pirates, Group of the Greens/European Free Alliance
 Kyoko Kuwahara, Research Fellow, Japan Institute of International Affairs
 Linda Monsees, Senior Researcher, Institute of International Relations, Prague

Moderator: Danielle Piatkiewicz, Research Fellow, EUROPEUM Institute for European Policy

We have organized another debate in the EU-Pacific Talks series. This one focused on the weaponization of information and discussed how certain countries' experiences with disinformation campaigns and their proactive approaches to countering them, along with their focus on cybersecurity, provide valuable insights and serve as models for addressing these challenges. You can watch the recorded debate on our Facebook page.
