

15 years in the EU: What have we learned?

Monday May 20, 2019, 18:00 – 21:00
Prague House, Avenue Palmerston 16, Brussels

EUROPEUM Institute for European Policy, the Permanent Representation of the Czech Republic to the EU and the Delegation of Prague to the EU cordially invite you to a panel discussion followed by a light refreshment and a glass of wine.

Opening remarks:

Milena Hrdinková, State Secretary for European Affairs, Czech Republic

H. E. Jakub Dürr, Permanent Representative of the Czech Republic to the EU

Panel discussion:

Vladimír Bartovic, Director, EUROPEUM Institute for European Policy, Czech Republic

Orsolya Raczova, Research Fellow, GLOBSEC, Slovakia

Sándor Gyula Nagy, Deputy Director for Research, Institute for Foreign Affairs and Trade, Hungary

Jakub Groszkowski, Head of Central European Department, Centre for Eastern Studies, Poland

*The Czech Republic and other 9 countries celebrate 15 years of EU membership. What have we achieved and learned in the process? Are we fully-fledged members or still “the new member states”?
What is the position of Central Europe in the EU?*
