The round table is organised as part of the project “Visegrad in the EU – How Much Do We Matter?”, whose aim is to assess the impact of the V4 countries on the EU policy making. The project is a result of the cooperation of the Institute for European Policy EUROPEUM (Czech Republic), Institute of Public Affairs (Poland) Institute for Foreign Affairs and Trade (Hungary) and Slovak Foreign Policy Association (Slovakia) and is supported by the International Visegrad Fund.

The reports which have been developed within the project have looked at the role that the V4 countries played in shaping EU policies during their first ten years of membership in such areas as the EU Single Market, EU institutions, the Economic and Monetary Union, the Area of Freedom, Security and Justice as well as in the EU external relations.
