

NEWSLETTER

January 2024/2

Newsletter: Last chance to apply for an internship | New Prague European Summit Podcast

Welcome to the second newsletter of January!

After a hectic end of the year, January is a month of new beginnings at EUROPEUM. We have welcomed two new members to our team - Liljana Cvetanoska, who has become a Head of Research, and Zuzana Krulichová, a Research Fellow. We published a new blog on the EU's response to the Hamas attack on Israel, and our experts continued to be active in the media, providing commentary on topics such as the presidential election in Taiwan, the upcoming Hungarian EU presidency, and the issue of the country's respect for the rule of law.

The first episode of the new Prague European Summit podcast was released. In it you will be able to listen to recordings of debates from PES 2023 on all podcast apps in the coming weeks. Read more about the new podcast later in the newsletter.

Just a reminder that applications for the internship in the organisation and communication team are about to close. Applications along with cover letters can be sent to jobs@europeum.org until 31 January 2024 and interviews with selected candidates/applicants will take place on 7 and 8 February. This is a internship with a workload of 1-2 days per week. For more information, please see below 📌

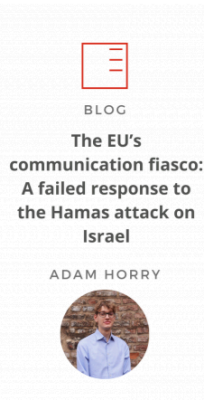

Sincerely, EUROPEUM

Internships - February 2024

The selection process for internship positions in the organisational and communication team is ongoing, with the internship starting in February 2024. The deadline for applications is already 31 January. More information can be found here.

Publications

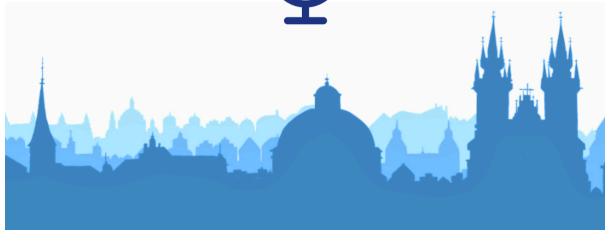

BLOG | The EU's communication fiasco: A failed response to the Hamas attack on Israel

The EU has failed to communicate well on the Hamas attack on Israel. This blog looks at the shortcomings of the EU response and sheds light on the complexities and challenges the EU faces in dealing with the aftermath of this sensitive geopolitical situation. Read more in the blog by Adam Horry.

Read blog

Prague European Summit Podcast

Towards a more sustainable & prosperous European & global economy through trade & investments

In the first episode of the new podcast, you can listen to a debate on current European economic policy, with guests François Chimits, Mirek Dušek, Jochen Schanz and Sabine Weyand. Hosted by Vanda Kofroňová from Czech Television.

New episodes will be published every Monday and Thursday. The podcast is in English.

In the media

- ČT24 | Twenty Years of the Czech Republic in the European Union (Martin Vokálek)
- Ekonomický deník | There is a consensus to keep China out of Europe's critical infrastructure (Zuzana Krulichová)
- RTVS | The European Parliament strongly condemned Hungary (Žiga Faktor)
- ČRo | The current Hungarian government of Viktor Orbán threatens the values, institutions and financial interests of the EU (Viktor Daněk)
- ČRo Plus | Rule of Law and Budapest's approach to negotiations on joint funding and support for Ukraine (Vít Havelka)
- TV Nova | Is democracy in Europe at risk? (Martin Vokálek)
- ČRo Plus | The far right is gaining strength ahead of the European Parliament elections (Viktor Daněk)
- Radiožurnál | MEPs have run out of patience with Hungary. They are demanding that it loses its voting rights (Žiga Faktor)
- ČRo Plus | The impact of the presidential election result in Taiwan (Zuzana Krulichová)
- E15 | Europe is terrified of Orbán at the head of EU institutions. It must speed up the selection of a new "EU president" (Žiga Faktor)

Co-funded by the European Union

EUROPEUM Institute for European Policy
Staroměstské náměstí 4/1, 11 000
Praha CZ

For more information on data protection, please follow this link.

If you do not wish to receive these emails, unsubscribe here.

©2023 Institute for European Policy EUROPEUM.

All rights reserved.