Industrial support and car transport in the EU

Welcome to the first newsletter of April.

On Thursday, 23 March, Café Evropa held a debate on the topic "European Remembrance of the Shoah Victims and the Fight against Anti-Semitism". The invitation to the debate was accepted by: Eva Horelová, Deputy Head, Representation of the European Commission in the Czech Republic, Hana Kubátová, Assistant Professor, Faculty of Social Sciences, Charles University, Michael Pelíšek, Secretary, Federation of Jewish Communities, Robert Řehák, Special Representative for the Holocaust, Interreligious Dialogue and Freedom of Religion, Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Czech Republic and Michal Šmíd, Administrator of the Memory of Nations portal. The debate was moderated by Eva Horelová. You can watch the full recording of the debate here.

We cordially invite you to a presentation of the results of public opinion and a discussion entitled "Migration and climate in the Czech Republic after a year of war". The presentation will take place on Thursday 13 April at 14:00 at the Prague Creative Centre, Staroměstské náměstí 4/1, Prague. The results of the first public opinion poll in the Czech Republic, conducted within the RevivEU project, on the topics of migration, climate change and attitudes towards the EU will be presented. The STEM agency is involved in the research and its representatives will comment on the most interesting results of this part of the project, including some findings from the same survey conducted in other V4 countries. More information about the event can be found here.
