

NEWSLETTER

June 2023/2

Welcome to the second newsletter of June.

This time we will take a look at what we have already accomplished in June and what is still to come. For example, in June we published interesting comments on the European Presidency and other activities, which you can read on our website, and finally we would like to invite you to another debate in the EU± series, this time on the topic "Election season in Central Europe - what lies ahead for our region?".

Thank you for subscribing.

Your EUROPEUM

National Convention on the EU | Recommendations: The European Political Community and its future potential

Our Senior Research Fellow Jana Juzová and the Head of the Brussels Office Žiga Faktor have elaborated on the recommendations resulting from the National Convention on the EU Round Table on the topic of "The European Political Community and its Future Potential". The main questions submitted to the Roundtable were: What potential does the European Political Community offer, and how can it complement existing platforms and processes? In which areas of cooperation does the platform have the greatest potential, and what should it focus on? What format and modus operandi of the platform would be most beneficial to fulfill its purpose? You can read the background material here and the recommendations here.
